Layne Beachley AO is a surfing legend, claiming a remarkable 7 World titles, the only surfer in the world to win 6 consecutively. Her path to success was peppered with challenges, including adoption, mental illness, life-threatening injuries, and overcoming failures.

Embracing setbacks as opportunities for growth, Layne's honest and determined approach to life and success inspires us all. She's not only a champion in surfing but also a fierce advocate for equality within the sport, a passionate environmental campaigner, Chair of Surfing Australia and champion for mental wellness.

Today, her mission is to empower 1 million lives to become more centred, connected and confident through her transformational work at Awake Academy. She still surfs every day, loves Rosé and her biggest weakness is hot chips.
